

Rich Earth Summit: Reclaiming Urine as a Resource

November 12 - 14, 2024

Hybrid: Virtual (Zoom) and In-Person (Rich Earth Hub in Brattleboro, VT)

Join the conversation!

The Rich Earth Summit, hosted by the Rich Earth Institute, is the global event dedicated to advancing urine nutrient reclamation. This gathering brings together researchers, practitioners, and advocates to share knowledge and foster collaboration. Join us at the 10th annual Summit – a golden opportunity to explore the transformative power of peecycling. Together, we can pee the change!

2024 Summit topics include:

- Urine treatment and processing research
- Virtual tours of urine recycling facilities
- Container-based systems and sanitation justice
- Urine diverting toilet exhibits
- Urine fertilizer in sustainable agriculture
- Knowledge-sharing strategies
- Navigating policy and regulatory pathways
- Engaging youth in circular sanitation solutions
- Design and sociotechnical dynamics
