

2016 Urine Diversion Summit

Hosted by the Rich Earth Institute in Brattleboro, VT

Day One - Thursday

Build relationships, share experiences/knowledge, celebrate

8:00-9:00 - Registration tea/coffee/pastries - settling in

9:00-10:15 - Introductions

10:15-10:30 Why we are here and 2015 Summit accomplishments

10:30-12:00 Presentations

1. Lilian Volat - Emergency sanitation - CEWAS
2. Hilde Maingay and Earle Barnhart - Cape Cod Eco-Toilet Project
3. Ali Gagnon - Hampton Roads Sanitation District
4. Catherine Bryars - Sanitation and Planners
5. Nic Mory - Peeponics
6. Matthew Lippincott - ReCODE
7. Harold Leverenz - NPK recovery
8. Others TBD

12:00-1:00 LUNCH

1:00-2:30 Research Presentations

1. Heather Goetsch - Fate of microorganisms when urine-derived fertilizers are applied to edible crops
2. Rachel Mullen - Fate of pharmaceuticals when urine-derived fertilizers are applied to edible crops
3. Daniella Saetta - Urea hydrolysis and P recovery
4. Abe Noe-Hays - Reverse Osmosis
5. Tatiana Schreiber - Rich Earth's Social Research
6. Nancy Love - NSF Research

2:30-2:45 Break

2:45-3:30 Setting the stage for Friday - Fast Forward - Urine Diversion 2050

3:30-5:30 Farm Tour - Group photos and press interviews

5:30-8:30 River Garden

Reception and dinner with cash bar
Joined by Rich Earth Urine Donors

Day Two - Friday

Prioritize next steps, invite collaborations, outline position paper

8:00-9:00 Coffee/Tea/Pastries

9:00-9:15 Highlights from Thursday

9:15-10:00 Mapping the challenges for UD -- Full Group

10:00-11:15 Dissecting and Meeting the challenges -- Small Group work

11:15-12:30 Report and Discuss

12:30-1:30 Lunch

1:30-2:00 Burning thoughts

2:00-3:00 Creation of a Mind Map - Visualizing the Future

3:00-3:15 Break

3:15-4:30 Outlining a Position Paper

4:30-5:15 Highlights and Closing

6:00 - Dinner 44 Fuller Drive